

SAMUEL TRISTAN HURON

shuron@utexas.edu | (830) 428-1470 | linkedin.com/in/samuel-huron

EDUCATION

The University of Texas at Austin | College of Liberal Arts

May 2028

Bachelor of Arts in Sociology | Minor in Government & Rhetoric and Writing | Certificate in Public Policy

- Honors: University Honors (Fall 2024; Spring 2025; Fall 2025; Spring 2026) | Dean's Honor List (Spring 2025) | HSF Scholar (Fall 2025) | Distinguished College Scholar (Spring 2026) | Murry and Polly Bowden Fellow (Fall 2026)
- Relevant Coursework: GOV 305C (Federal Government); UGS 303 (Why The Rent Is So High); SOC 321K (Latinx Sociology); SOC 321V (Environmental Sociology); SOC 322J (Economic Sociology of Health); LA 101L (Pathways to Research); LA 325 (Research Cohort Internship); LAH 350 (Treasure Hunt in Campus Archives)
- GPA: 4.0/4.0 | 80 Completed Credit Hours

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

Policy Agendas Project | Undergraduate Research Assistant | Austin, TX

Jan. 2026—Present

- Code and analyze 200+ congressional bills biweekly to track policy themes, issue areas, and agenda-setting patterns within the U.S. legislative process
- Conducted in-depth policy research examining trends in congressional agendas, including bill introductions, committee activity, and shifts in issue prioritization over time
- Synthesized large-scale legislative datasets and secondary sources to produce clear, accessible summaries for both academic research use and public-facing policy communication

Giving Voice to Hidden Histories Project | Undergraduate Research Assistant | Austin, TX

Jan. 2026—May 2026

- Designed and developed a public-facing digital exhibit using Omeka, incorporating hundreds of HTML customizations and plugin modifications to improve site functionality and presentation
- Curated and presented an exhibit highlighting the role of Mexican-American workers and independent unions in advancing labor rights, particularly within university and campus labor movements
- Contributed to a broader collaborative project synthesizing archival materials, publications, and metadata into accessible digital narratives connecting issues of race, gender, labor, and social justice for public audiences

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

University of Texas Election Supervisory Board | Board Member | Austin, TX

Nov. 2025—May 2026

- Reviewed and interpreted election code as a member of the University of Texas Election Supervisory Board, drafting advisory opinions, conducting formal hearings, and coordinating campus election engagement initiatives to ensure fair, transparent, and accessible student elections

Bullock Texas State History Museum | Homestead Volunteer | Austin, TX

Aug. 2025—Present

- Contributed volunteer service at the Bullock Texas State History Museum by supporting large-scale public programming, coordinating event logistics for high-attendance functions, and monitoring exhibits to maintain safe and respectful visitor engagement

LEADERSHIP EXPERIENCE

Liberal Arts Council | Advocacy Director | Austin, TX

Jan. 2025—Present

- Direct advocacy initiatives for the Liberal Arts Council by organizing outreach programming, presiding over Advocacy & Education Sub-Committee meetings, and coordinating large-scale community engagement efforts including Liberal Arts Week

Texas Sociological Association | President & Founder | Austin, TX

Aug. 2025—Present

- Founded and serve as President of the Texas Sociological Association, growing the organization to 25+ active members through interdisciplinary programming, weekly professional development workshops, and leadership of a nine-member executive board

Texas Undergraduate Law Journal | Staff Editor | Austin, TX

Aug. 2025—Present

- Edit and verify long-form academic scholarship as a Staff Editor for the Texas Undergraduate Law Journal, conducting source review and collaborating with authors and editorial staff to maintain publication standards and research integrity

Texas Political Consulting | Consultant | Austin, TX

Aug. 2025—Present

- Produce policy memos, voter materials, and research briefs as a Consultant for Texas Political Consulting while conducting legislative research, electoral analysis, and campaign support operations contributing more than $1,000 in pro-bono consulting services

Student Government | Associate Chief of Staff | Austin, TX

Aug. 2024—Present

- Support Executive Branch operations in Student Government as Associate Chief of Staff by managing executive meeting workflows, coordinating inter-branch communication, and advancing campus policies impacting more than 55,000 students

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Languages: English (Native); Spanish (Limited Working Proficiency); Russian (Limited Working Proficiency)

Certifications: Project Management, Hazing Prevention, Certified Application Counselor (CAC)

Programs: Microsoft Office 365 | Google Workspace | BOX | Canva

Skills: Qualitative Coding | Data Interpretation | Experimental Design | Project Scheduling